RISK DISCLOSURE

Introduction

This Risk Disclosure Statement is provided to ensure you, the User, understand the nature, limitations, and associated risks of using the EA Converters platform (“the Software”). By using the Software, you acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions, which emphasize the platform's function as a gateway to third-party Expert Advisor (EA) software.

Nature of the Software

Facilitation Gateway:

The Software serves as a gateway that facilitates your access to Expert Advisor (EA) software purchased from third-party providers. EA Converters does not develop, own, or sell any EA software or trading algorithms.

No Inclusion of EA Software:

The purchase of the EA Converters Software does not include any EA software or related trading tools. Users must separately obtain EA software from third-party providers at their own cost and discretion.

No Guarantees:

EA Converters does not guarantee the functionality, reliability, accuracy, or performance of any EA software obtained through third-party providers. The Software merely enables access to such tools; the quality and suitability of the EA software depend entirely on the third-party provider and the User's discretion.

RISK DISCLOSURE

User Responsibilities

Independent Purchase of EA Software:

Users are solely responsible for identifying, selecting, and purchasing EA software from third-party providers. EA Converters does not endorse, recommend, or vet any specific third-party providers or their products.

Due Diligence:

Users are encouraged to conduct thorough research and due diligence before purchasing any EA software. This includes assessing the reputation, terms, and risks associated with the third-party provider.

Compatibility:

It is the User's responsibility to ensure that the third-party EA software is compatible with the EA Converters platform. EA Converters is not liable for any compatibility issues or resulting disruptions.

Risks Associated with Third-Party EA Software

Performance Risks:

EA Converters is not responsible for the performance, results, or outcomes of any EA software used via the platform. Users acknowledge that the performance of third-party EA software may vary and can result in financial gains or losses.

Third-Party Risks:

Since EA software is provided by independent third-party vendors, EA Converters has no control over the quality, updates, support, or availability of these products. Issues such as poor performance, lack of updates, or vendor unavailability are beyond EA Converters' control.

RISK DISCLOSURE

Security Risks:

Users must be cautious when interacting with third-party providers. EA Converters does not guarantee the security, authenticity, or integrity of third-party EA software.

Downloading or using unauthorized or malicious software could compromise the User's systems or data.

Limitations of Liability

No Responsibility for Third-Party Products:

EA Converters disclaims all liability for any losses, damages, or issues arising from the use of third-party EA software, including but not limited to:

- i. Errors, bugs, or failures in the EA software.
- ii. Financial losses resulting from trading decisions made using the EA software.
- iii. Misrepresentation, fraud, or breaches by third-party providers.

User Assumes Full Risk:

By using the EA Converters Software, Users accept full responsibility for their choice of third-party EA software and acknowledge the inherent risks involved.

Disclaimer of Warranties

Platform Functionality:

EA Converters warrants only that its platform functions as a gateway for enabling access to third-party EA software as described. The platform does not guarantee success, profitability, or any specific outcome from the use of third-party EA software.

RISK DISCLOSURE

No Endorsements:

EA Converters does not endorse or make representations regarding the accuracy, reliability, or suitability of any third-party EA software accessed through its platform.

Recommendations and Best Practices

Research Vendors:

Carefully review the credentials, terms, and reviews of third-party providers before purchasing EA software.

Test Before Use:

Where possible, test EA software in a demo environment before using it in a live trading scenario.

Understand the Risks:

Trading using EA software involves financial risks, including the possibility of significant losses. Only trade with funds you can afford to lose.

Secure Your Data:

Take precautions to secure your personal and financial information when interacting with third-party providers. Avoid sharing sensitive information unnecessarily.

Acknowledgment and Acceptance

By using the EA Converters platform, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and accepted this Risk Disclosure Statement. You further acknowledge and agree that:

- i. EA Converters is not responsible for any outcomes, whether positive or negative, resulting from your use of third-party EA software.

RISK DISCLOSURE

- ii. You assume all risks associated with the selection, purchase, and use of third-party EA software.
- iii. You release EA Converters from any liability arising from issues related to third-party EA software.
